

JUN 20 1958

Approved For Release 2000/05/24 : CIA-RDP75-00149R000600090014-5

STATINTL

CPYRGHT

United Press International

Shipowner Quizzed

Being sued by the U. S. Government for alleged breach of contract to build three tankers at an estimated cost of $50 million, Aristotle Socrates Onassis, Greek shipping magnate, is shown testifying yesterday before the House Merchant Marine Subcommittee. The shipbuilding agreement was part of the terms of settlement of an earlier dispute over the right of Onassis interests to buy surplus vessels after World War II.

CPYRGHT